

Pikes Peak Music Teachers Association

Piano Concerto Competition 2019

Entry Deadline: October 5, 2019

Audition Date: November 16, 2019

Audition Location: Packard Hall, Colorado College, Colorado Springs

Eligibility: All area non-collegiate students are eligible. Students may not be selected as winner in two consecutive years.

Entry Fee: $50 for students of PPMTA/SCMTA teachers;
$75 for students of non-MTA teachers.

Literature: One movement of a piano concerto, with cuts in the orchestral tutti sections. Live piano accompaniment required. Repertoire must be pre-approved by the CSYSA Music Director, Gary Nicholson, gnicholson@csysa.com

Competition Co-Chairs:

Mary Beth Shaffer, NCTM, mbshaffer@comusicteachers.com
Barbara Taylor, NCTM, BarbaraTaylor8@msn.com

Entry Form and Info: www.PPMTA.org

Winner performs with the Colorado Springs Youth Symphony on March 8, 2020, at the ENT Center, under the direction of Gary Nicholson

Additional Prizes:

Winner – Full tuition scholarship to International Summer Academy of Music, Germany

Second Prize - $500 scholarship to the Lamont Summer Academy

Third Prize – Full tuition scholarship to Southern Colorado Adventure Camp

Honorable Mention – Half tuition scholarship to Southern Colorado Adventure Camp

*Please note that the full tuition scholarships are not inclusive of room, board or transportation.

Schmitt Music is the proud corporate sponsor of the PPMTA/CSYSA Piano Concerto Competition