

Paul Stephens earned a B.M. in piano performance at the University of Missouri at Kansas City and his M.M., also in piano performance, at Ball State University. He also spent a year of graduate study at the Cleveland Institute of Music. Mr. Stephens has taught applied piano at Ball State, William Jewell College, and Northeast Missouri State University. In 1988, he was granted the Professional Certificate by MTNA. He has had a private piano studio for over fifty years, teaching students at all levels of advancement, from the ages of four to seventy.